HOUSING ASSISTANCE COUNCIL

The Housing Assistance Council (HAC) is a national nonprofit Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI) that strengthens communities across rural America through investment and assistance with affordable housing and community and economic development initiatives. Based in Washington, DC, HAC is actively involved in shaping federal policy and the affordable housing industry with its research, lending and conferences. We also deliver technical assistance, training and affordable loans at the local level to organizations that help rural communities prosper.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Senior Portfolio Manager provides leadership and oversight to a team that performs a range of lending activities -- closing, disbursement, monitoring, servicing and asset management of single-family and multifamily housing development loans -- in the Housing Assistance Council’s (HAC’s) Loan Fund Division. The Senior Portfolio Manager develops, organizes, coordinates, recommends, and implements systems to ensure that appropriate due diligence is undertaken throughout the lending process. He/she also performs a variety of tasks directly including, but not limited to, loan portfolio and risk management and analysis, preparing lender/investor covenant compliance reports, conceptualizing lending policies and procedures, and providing technical assistance and training to borrowers. Under the direction of the Director of Lending, the Senior Portfolio Manager works collaboratively with the lending business development and underwriting staff, other HAC divisions, Management Team, and HAC’s Loan Committee.

The position comes with a competitive salary, generous benefits and the opportunity to work in a fun and mission-focused environment. The position is based in HAC’s Washington, DC headquarters.
