A. CHDO is not controlled, nor receives directions from individuals or entities seeking profit from the organization, as evidenced by:

- _____ The organization's By-laws, OR
- _____ A Memorandum of Understanding (MOU).

B. A CHDO may be sponsored or created by a for-profit entity, however:
(1) The for-profit entity's primary purpose does not include the development or management of housing, as evidenced by:

- _____ The for-profit organization's By-laws

AND;

(2) The CHDO is free to contract for goods and services from vendor(s) of its own choosing, as evidenced by the CHDO's:

_____ By-Laws,
_____ Charter, OR
_____ Articles of Incorporation.

EXCERPTS FROM AN IRS LETTER

A sample of typical requests from the IRS to organizations seeking 501(c)(3) status is provided below. Although all situations are unique, this sample can help an organization more effectively plan and prepare for the process. For additional information, contact your local IRS office.

(1) Submit a detailed description of all the activities of the organization -- past, present, and planned -- showing how you operate or will operate to achieve your purposes. Each activity should be separately described and the description should include as a minimum, the following:

- (a) Its purpose and nature.
- (b) Frequency and duration.
- (c) How, when, where, and by whom it was, is, or will be conducted.
- (d) The requirements a person or organization must meet in order to participate in or receive benefit from the activity.
- (e) The amounts of any charges or fees and the basis for them.
- (f) What the activity has accomplished or will accomplish.
- (g) State what percentage of the total time and effort of the organization is devoted to carrying out each activity.

(2) If the organization pays, has paid, or will pay compensation to or on behalf of persons who are officers, directors, or trustees or members of their families, or any other compensation, submit the following:

- (a) The name and title or relationship of such person to whom payment has been, is being, or will be paid.
- (b) The nature and/or purpose of payments (i.e., salary, wage, housing allotment, car allowance, etc.) and the amount of payment made or to be made on behalf of such person. If payments are to be made in more than one category, state each separately.
- (c) A detailed description of the positions filled by and the duties and services for which compensation will be paid.
- (d) The amount of time each person devotes to the position (if prospective, how the payment will be affected by an upward or downward adjustment in time based on need of the organization).
- (e) The qualifications (training, background, experience) of such person for the position, duties, and services.
- (f) If any such person is employed outside the organization, the hours per week and weeks per year devoted to such outside employment.
- (g) Who determines compensation to be paid? What criteria is used to determine compensation?

(h) How do you or will you insure that all compensation paid is "reasonable" and in return for service rendered?

(i) Does the organization pay or plan to pay any of the personal living expenses of employees, directors, officers, founders, members, etc.? If so, explain in detail. Be specific.

(3) Submit copies of any brochures, pamphlets, newsletters, advertisements, or other literature regarding your organization.

(4) Providing housing for individuals who earn a certain percentage of an area's median income is not sufficient to establish that you are operated exclusively for charitable purposes, a prerequisite for exemption under Section 501(c)(3). Basing a determination of exempt status on a strict percentage test is generally not sufficient to confer tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3).

If it appears that the organization may be engaged in assisting the poor and distressed, the organization must be able to show how it qualifies under 501(c)(3). If you claim to be eliminating prejudice and discrimination, submit descriptions of the existing prejudicial and discriminatory conditions that exist in the areas you are targeting for assistance and an explanation of how your activities will seek to alleviate such conditions. Be specific in your descriptions. Describe any educational or other programs you will provide to eliminate prejudice and/or discrimination.

(5) If you claim to combat community deterioration, submit descriptions of the areas you will be targeting for relief. Provide evidence of the deterioration of the community. State whether any of the areas you will be targeting for assistance have been recognized as depressed by a governmental agency.

(a) Submit a copy of such determination as to the condition of the area served.

(b) Submit a description from the authorizing agency as to how that agency defines "blight."

(6) State whether any of your housing recipients will earn more than 80% of the area's median income.

(7) Why do you include moderate income families in your housing activities? How will this serve a charitable purpose? Discuss in detail.

(8) Have you been issued an employer identification number? If so, please let us know the number that has been assigned to you.

(9) Please submit any additional information you feel will help us better understand your organization.
